

PRIVACY POLICY

To provide you with the best customer experience, Hse of Hutton is committed to protecting your privacy with transparency when we handle your personal information. The aim of this Privacy Policy is to obtain customer satisfaction and trust by protecting any and all information you give us when you use this website. We never share or sell your information that you intentionally submit to us to any third party. Hse of Hutton. will use these details only in connection with processing your orders, inquiries or related issues.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

We collect personal identifying information when an order is placed with your knowledge and consent. The range of personal information includes your name, email address, contact address, telephone number, fax number, and transaction information to process your order. The site uses security measures in order to prevent unauthorized access of information under our control. All personal information are securely transmitted, encrypted and kept safe in a Secure Socket Layer (SSL).

PAYMENT SECURITY

All credit card payments are securely processed by PayPal. Your purchase transaction data is thoroughly protected at all times. All transactions through our website are processed using an industry standard 256-bit SSL encryption. Your credit card information is never stored or shared with any third party.

POLICY UPDATES

Hse of Hutton. reserves the right to change, update and modify this Privacy Policy from time to time without prior notice. Such changes do not nullify our rights if infringements or breaches occurred under a previous version of our policies.
